

Rowe, Walter R.

To Mark Birthday On French Soil

Pfc. Walter R. Rowe, son of Mrs. George Younger, 64 West Raspberry Street, and husband of the former Arlene Correll, 27 East Garrison Street, will observe his 23rd birthday anniversary on Labor Day "somewhere in France" fighting.

After serving nine months in the States, Pfc. Rowe was stationed in England 19 months until he landed in France on D-Day. He will soon be serving two years overseas and three years in the Army. He has a daughter, Barbara Anne, whom he has seen. She was born shortly before his going overseas.

He has a brother, Pfc. George P. L. Rowe, serving "somewhere in Italy" and another brother, Pvt. Edward Rowe, soon to go overseas.

September 1, 1944