

Yurack, Albert R.

MARINE MARKS BIRTHDAY

Pfc. Albert R. Yurack, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yurack, 1623 East Eighth Street, is observing his 26th birthday anniversary September 26.

SEP 26 1944

He enlisted in the Marine Corps in December, 1941, and received his training at Parris Island, S. C. Previously he had been employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company in the Central Tool Department.

Pfc. Yurack was with the First Marine Division when they made their Guadalcanal landings, has taken part in two major engagements since, and wears a Presidential Unit Citation ribbon.

After 21 months of overseas duty, he returned to the States due to repeated attacks of malaria, and is now stationed at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.
