

Czar, Frank J.

Wounded Soldier
Aids In Training
Program In England

Technical Sergeant Frank L. Czar, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Czar, 511 Spring Street, who was wounded in the heavy fighting in Normandy, is now participating in a training program at a U. S. Army rehabilitation center in England.

Sgt. Czar is the holder of the Distinguished Service Cross and the Purple Heart with two clusters for bravery during two previous campaigns. While his infantry unit was attacking a strong German position held by panzer troops he was shot by a German pistol. He was immediately evacuated to a hospital in England after walking back to a company aid station for treatment.

He entered the Army in July, 1941, and has been overseas for over two years.
