

Godown, William George

His Ship Lost

JUL 17 1943

Third class baker William Godown, aged 19, a member of the crew of the Destroyer Strong when it was torpedoed and sunk in the Solomons, July 4, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Godown of Riegelsville, Pa., who are hoping soon to hear from the War Department about their son's fate. He has been in the Navy since March, 1941. His last letter home was dated June 20. A brother, George, is a technical sergeant in the Army, at Fort Benning, Ga. There are 10 other children in the family.

July 17, 1943