

Reph, Hobert C.

Northampton Draft Board Sends 47 Into Service

OCT 21 1943

Northampton County Draft Board No. 2 provided 47 men for the nation's armed forces yesterday, through the Allentown Induction Center. Five were accepted for the Marine Corps, one by the Coast Guard, 23 by the Army and 18 by the Navy, as follows:

Marines: Hobert C. Reph, Frank J. Hock, John J. Gerkovich and Robert J. Bickert.

Coast Guard: Marion H. Longenbach.

Army: Paul F. Kohler, Raymond P. Weaver, Samuel C. Stone, Edward J. Doncses, Ray F. Wahl, William J. Moyer, Alexander Susco, Paul J. Schwartz, Harold A. Henry, Emil A. Check, Dale E. Newhart, Carl C. Gressler, Willard W. Rehrig, David E. Houck, Frank J. Lang, Raleigh C. Miller, Matthew J. Erdie, Stephen M. Frisch, Stephen L. Stubits, William E. Bartholomew, Russell A. Morgan, Albert F. Holaska and Melvin D. Miller.

Navy: John J. Bimits, Franklin

H. Miller, Donald C. Setzer, Cornelius A. Stanz, Sherwood H. Messinger, Sr., Thomas R. Sparks, Stephen Sayuk, Wallace Schur, Robert C. Stewart, Merle E. Hampshire, George F. Kleinbuster, Wilfred R. Lakey, Andrew Rosko, Donald A. Laub, Joseph J. Holubowsky, Francis R. Sponheimer, William A. Sage and Josef F. Szivas.

Oct. 21, 1943