~~JUL 23 1942~~
Worcester, Mass., July 28 (Special to the Globe-Times)—Three young men from Pennsylvania today registered for their senior year at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute. President Wat Tyler Cluverius, Rear Admiral, U. S. N., retired, greeted the 123 members of the Class of 1943 as they returned to college at the close of their four-weeks vacation. Of the 123 members of this class, 33 have already received probationary commissions as Ensigns in the U. S. Naval Reserve. Students from Pennsylvania include Jackson L. Durkee, Green Pond Farms, this city.
