

Four Navy Men Of Area Finish V-12 Training

MAR 6 1944
Four men from the Bethlehem area have completed their work as Bluejackets in the Naval V-12 unit at Muhlenberg College and have been assigned to new bases for further training as officer candidates in the United States Navy.

John Strohmeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Strohmeyer, of Bethlehem R. 2, has been sent to the United States Naval Reserve Pre-Midshipmen's school at Asbury Park, N. J. Before his induction into the Navy he was a civilian student at Moravian College and Theological Seminary.

Charles J. DaRos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DaRos, of 1202 Elm Street, Bethlehem, is being sent to Michigan University for Navy training in aero structural engineering. He is a graduate of the Liberty High School.

Anthony Ursic, who before his induction was a civilian student at Muhlenberg, has been transferred to the Naval ROTC unit at Harvard University. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ursic of Easton R. 3.

Donald C. Mack of Bangor has also completed his work as a member of the Navy V-12 unit.

Mack, a Marine, has been sent to the Marine Corps base at Parris Island, S. C. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Mack of 613 South Main Street, Bangor, and was a civilian student at Muhlenberg before he was called to active duty in the Marine Corps on July 1, 1943.

The four men have been members of the V-12 unit at Muhlenberg since July 1, 1943, and completed two terms of academic training under the college and Navy program. They received special certificates at the college's recent mid-winter commencement.
