

Feilbach, Richard H.

Gets Combat Award

JAN 8 1945

Private First Class Richard H. Feilbach, son of Mrs. Pearl Feilbach, 1106 Dover Lane, was recently awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge while fighting with the 100th Infantry Division in France.

The local soldier's division is one of the newest on the front of Lt. Gen. Alexander Patch's American Seventh Army. It left the United States with a high reputation earned in its training period in the Carolinas and Louisiana maneuver areas.
