Local Youth to be Inducted in Mass
Ceremony Thursday.

Three Bethlehem brothers will be inducted into the U. S. Navy at a mass induction service next Thursday at Allentown Fair Grounds when it is hoped by the Navy that 100 men will receive the oath of allegiance.

The brothers are Fred Francis Leiderman, Jr., 524 Ontario Street; Robert Henry Leiderman, 524 Ontario Street, and John Frederick Leiderman, 517 Shaffer Street.

Initial details of the mass induction plan were released by Chief Petty Officer Paul Bloch, in charge of recruiting in this area. A 25-minute program will take place when the ceremonies are held with Lieutenant R. F. Harper, of the Navy Aviation Cadet Selection Board, Philadelphia, administering the oath.

Men who wish to be inducted at the mass ceremony may still apply at the Allentown recruiting center, Postoffice Building, but should do so as quickly as possible, Navy men said. A physician will be present all day Tuesday to give examinations and applicants should take a birth or baptismal certificate with them when applying for enlistment.
