

Clewell Jr., Pristas

GETS ARMY COMMISSION.

In an impressive and solemn ceremony at the Ordnance Officer Candidate School at the Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., approximately 225 Officer Candidate students received the hard-earned and highly coveted honor of becoming Second Lieutenants in the Ordnance Department of the United States Army.

Among the graduates is Second Lieutenant Pristas Clewell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clewell, of this city. Lieut. Clewell is a graduate of Liberty High School and entered the Army April 2, 1941. Prior to joining the armed forces he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He was ordered to report to Officers' Candidate School from A. P. Hill Reservation, Va., where he attained the rank of Master Sergeant and his work there was that of Chief of Section.
