

Katris, Harry J.

Cited for Bravery

OCT 5 1944

A presidential citation for bravery in action, three bronze stars signifying participation in three major campaigns and the Oak Leaf cluster were awarded recently to Second Lieutenant Harry J. Katris, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Katris, of 442 South New Street, according to word received by his parents.

Just one year ago, the young man received his wings at the Army Air Force Navigation School in Coral Gables, Fla. He is a graduate of Liberty High with two years work completed in the engineering department at the University of Illinois.

In November, 1943, he shipped overseas. Since that time he has been on a troop transport carrying paratroopers, airborne infantry and gliders.

October 5, 1944