Three From Area To Enter WAVES 'Birthday Brigade'

AUG 10 1943
A second "birthday brigade" of WAVES will leave Thursday to begin training at Hunter College, New York. It will consist of 111 women from the Fourth Naval District, including three from this section, who were sworn into the Navy during the closing week of the three-week recruiting campaign held in conjunction with the first anniversary of the founding of the Women's Reserve.

The young women who will leave from this section are Miss Marjorie M. Delp, of 719 Lynn Street, this city; Miss Anna Pundiak, of 1129 Furnace Street, Hellertown, and Miss Mary A. Ruhf, of 2402 South Fifth Street, Allentown.

Miss Delp is the daughter of Mrs. Flossie Delp and is a graduate of Fountain Hill School, class of 1938. She has been in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company, cost division, and leaves Thursday for her boot training at Hunter College.

Miss Pundiak is a daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pundiak. She attended Liberty High School in Bethlehem and formerly was in the employ of Laros Textile Company. She also will receive her boot training at Hunter.
