

Diefenderfer, Carson F.

Lieut. Diefenderfer
At Building School

Lieut. Carson F. Diefenderfer, former Lehigh University student, has left the 89th Infantry Division in France for a five weeks course in building materials at Watford, England.

OCT 17 1945

The Watford School is one of the many European and British educational institutions that have offered their facilities to GI's and officers serving overseas.

Lt. Diefenderfer, whose wife resides at 153 American Street, Fullerton, is stationed at Camp Twenty Grand, one of the huge staging camps operated by the 89th Infantry Division for the purpose of speeding to the USA thousands of combat veterans like themselves.

October 17, 1945