

Bukics, Alexander Jr

" , John

Missing In Action

Pfc. Alexander Bukics Jr. is reported missing in action in Luxembourg since October 31, in a War Department telegram received by his brother, Joseph Bukics, 1145 East Third Street, early yesterday.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bukics Sr., he was inducted in September, 1941, and received his training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., Fort Jackson, S. C., Camp Forrest, Tenn., Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and Yuma, Ariz., before shipping overseas to Ireland, December 1, 1943. Pfc. Bukics is a member of the 20th Infantry Division which fought in France, and most recently Luxembourg.

A brother, Pvt. John Bukics, is stationed at Stewart Field, West Point, N. Y.

Nov 21, 1944