

Deibert, Earl

T-Sgt. Earl Deibert
Of Northampton
Gets Bronze Star

DEC 21 1944

Technical Sergeant Earl Deibert, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Deibert, 913 Washington Avenue, Northampton, a crew-chief at a Flying Fort Base, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal, it was announced recently by Colonel James S. Sutton, commanding officer of the 306th Bombardment Group.

T. Sgt. Deibert is a veteran of 36 consecutive missions, completed by aircraft under his care, bringing his total to date 42 missions, with not one turnback because of mechanical failure.

His application of a wide scope of technical knowledge has been clearly evident throughout his assignments. Prior to entering the AAF, he was a mechanic at the Mack Motors, Allentown.

December 21, 1944