

Dancho, George

Large Group Of Selectees Leaves Today

A group of selectees sent to the Allentown Induction Center this morning will soon be wearing the country's uniform, but the branch of service was unknown to them when they left.

Under a recent ruling, the selectees were assigned to some Army, Navy or Marine unit, after they reached the induction center. Today's group was in charge of Acting Corporal Donald R. Loury, Jr.

Today's departure lacked the customary ceremonies accorded previous contingents. They gathered at the board's headquarters in the South Side Municipal Building, marched to the Central Railroad Depot, and left at 7:40 a. m. Military kits were distributed by representatives of the Bethlehem Tobacco Club, headed by John Griffiths, president, and each of the boys was given a luncheon kit through the courtesy of the Salvation Army.

The draftees included:

George C. Dancho, Basil Kopiah, John P. Mironik, Howard R. Strehl, John Harkovich, Michael F. Schultz, Joseph Csordas, Andrew Michael Kolesky, Joseph Szabo, John T. Wolfe, Russell R. Hetrick, Jr., Donald R. Loury, Jr., Olivio A. Cruche, Samuel S. Lambert, Joseph E. Connors, Harry W. Grell, Jr., Hugh Conahan, Jr., Joseph L. Velas, Louis J. Karozsi, Martin Zalik, Jr., Carmen D. Cimino, Pasquale D. Ruggiero, Stanley F. Kubab, Harvey W. Louis, Joseph P. Holzer, Raymond J. Grund, Charles J. Oravec, Jr., Julius Kalmar, Michael Dudash, Jr., Stanley A. Beahm, Robert J. Nenes, Nathan Cohen, John Pavlish.

Jul 21, 1944