

Finnigan Jr., Oliver D.

Made Commander

COMDR. O. D. FINNIGAN JR.

O. D. Finnigan, Jr. Is Promoted To Full Commander

Mrs. O. D. Finnigan, Jr., of 47 East Church Street, has received word of the advancement of her husband, Lieut. Com. Oliver D. Finnigan, Jr., United States Navy, to the rank of full commander. Cmdr. Finnigan is on active duty in the Pacific.

A graduate of Liberty High School in the class of 1931 and the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, class of 1935, Cmdr. Finnigan, Jr., has been in active service in the Navy for nine years. He had been stationed at Pearl Harbor until April, 1941, where he was married to Jane Coyle, daughter of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William Radford Coyle, in 1938. From the Summer of 1939 to the Summer of 1940, Cmdr. and Mrs. Finnigan were in Europe. Cmdr. Finnigan's ship brought the Luxemburg Grand Duke and his children to this country after the invasion of that duchy.

The Finnigans have two children, Jane Ferree and Oliver Davis, III.
