

Kerecz, Francis M.

MISS IRENE KRUCLI

BRIDE OF OFFICER

NOV 19 1942

Marriage to Lt. F. M. Kerecz Solemnized in St. John's Church.

Miss Irene C. Krucli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sigmond Krucli, 1443 East Sixth Street, became the bride Saturday of Lieut. Francis M. Kerecz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kerecz, of 432 Pierce Street, at a ceremony performed by the Rev. Francis X. Gilley in St. John's Capistrano Church.

The bride, who was employed by Bethlehem Steel Company, is a graduate of Bethlehem High School, while the bridegroom, a former postal employe, graduated from Bethlehem High School and Bethlehem Business College.

Special organ numbers during the ceremony were offered by Sister Smeda, "Mother At Thy Feet I'm Kneeling," and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother."

Miss Anna V. Krucli, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and Miss Margaret Kerecz was bridesmaid. The best man was Lieut. Harry Boylan, Philadelphia, while the usher was Stephen Zelezen, of this city.

Following a reception at the home of the bridegroom the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls.
