

Nafe, Charles T.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Second Lt. Charles T. Nafe, son of Mrs. Charles S. Nafe, of Washington Avenue, is spending a 40-day furlough with his wife, the former Helen Drissel, at 637 Washington Avenue, after 18 months overseas. He has been in the European theater of war, including England and Iceland, with anti-aircraft of the Coast Artillery. The lieutenant, former clerk in the production department of Bethlehem Steel Company, has been in the service 26 months. His furlough ends February 29.

January 20, 1944