

Gangewere, Robert R.

MARINE RADIO GUNNER
RETURNING TO STATION

Pfc. Robert R. Gangewere, U. S. M. C., left Bethlehem Wednesday morning by motor for the west coast where he is stationed. Pfc. Gangewere spent the past two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gangewere, of 603 Sioux Street, Bethlehem, recuperating from an appendectomy. He was accompanied by Joseph Repasch, of Sioux Street; John Mulget, of Alaska Street, and John Fritz, of Vernon Street. Mr. Fritz will visit his son, Bernard, who is with the coast artillery at Long Beach, Calif.

Pfc. Gangewere joined the U. S. Marine Corps in November, 1940. After his basic training he was stationed at Quantico until December, 1941. He is a radio gunner on a scout bomber and is with the First Marine Aircraft Wing, Scout Bombing Squad 131. 7-27-42
