

Scholl, Ray E.

Now An Ensign

Ray E. Scholl (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scholl, Riegelsville R. D. 1, was recently commissioned as an ensign in the U. S. Navy. He reported for duty at Cornell University, September 1. Ensign Scholl is a graduate of Springfield High School, Moravian College and took two years Penn State Extension Course in Ferrous Metallurgy. Prior to receiving his commission he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company as an expeditor in the New Treatment Department.

(Fella Studio)

September 3, 1943