

Caponigro, John

Pvt. John Caponigro
Wounded In Action

A War Department telegram was received by Mrs. Eleanor Caponigro, Dewey Street, Roseto, informing her that her husband, Pvt. John Caponigro, had been wounded in action in France December 12.

Inducted in April, 1944, he received his training at Camp Croft, S. C., before going overseas in October, 1944.

Pvt. Caponigro was employed by the Well-Made Novelties Company of Bangor before his induction.

January 2, 1945