

Goodman, Milton J.

Sgt. M. J. Goodman In Communications Post

Staff Sgt. Milton J. Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goodman, of 421 East Union Street, Bethlehem, and brother of Sam B. Goodman, of 423 East Union Street, is on duty with a communications squadron at McClellan Field, Calif., near Sacramento, the state capital.

McClellan is headquarters for Sacramento Air Depot Control Area Command, one of 12 such areas in the Air Service Command's organization in the United States. Sgt. Goodman has been attending radio school.

Before entering service last July, Sgt. Goodman was engaged in the practice of law. He was a member of the firm of Mauch and Goodman, 203 West Fourth Street.

A graduate of Bethlehem High School and Lehigh University, where he obtained a bachelor of science degree, Sgt. Goodman attended Dickinson School of Law and received his LL.B. degree.

He is a member of the Northampton County Bar Association, Jacksonian Democratic Club, B'nai B'rith Lodge, Brith Sholom Community Center and Sigma Tau Phi Fraternity.

Sgt. Goodman was stationed at Ft. Meade, Md., St. Petersburg, Fla., and was graduated from Army Air Force technical training command in Chicago.

MAY 12 1943

May 12, 1943