

Connor, William H.
Louise

Allentown Husband, Wife Receive Lieutenancies

William H. Connor, of Allentown, son of former Superintendent of the Allentown public schools William L. Connor and wife, was promoted to the grade of ensign in the United States Naval Reserve and Mrs. William H. Connor became a second lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps during the past few days.

Ensign Connor, who joined the Navy July 19, received his boot training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station and is now on duty there awaiting transfer to Princeton University where he will take special work for officers.

Mrs. Connor, the former Louise M. Lunt, of Lexington, Mass., was commissioned in the Army Nurse Corps last week and will report for active duty Nov. 13 at Fort George Meade, Md.. For the past few months she has been on the staff of Muhlenberg College.

NOV 2 1943

November 2, 1943