

Tyson, Jesse R.
John

Flier On Terminal Leave
To Reenter Lehigh

Apr 22 1946
Lt. Jesse R. Tyson, pilot, Army Air Forces, son of Mrs. J. R. Tyson, Bethlehem R. D. 3, returned home this week on terminal leave and will re-enter Lehigh University in the near future. He was a junior at Lehigh when he entered the service in 1943. He served as a combat pilot in the European Theater and holds the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal.

Capt. John L. Tyson, his brother, who returned from the CBI Theater last December, is now an instructor-pilot in Boca Raton Airfield, Fla. His wife and son, John Jr., recently joined him there, where they will make their future home.

April 22, 1946