

Green Jr., Max A.

Sgt. Max Green
Listed Missing
Over Burma

APR 28 1945
Mr. and Mrs. Max A. Green, 216 East Union Street, received a telegram from the War Department yesterday, notifying them that their son, Sgt. Max A. Green, Jr., was missing since April 13 over Burma, where he has been stationed for the past six months, flying supplies to the ground forces.

Sgt. Green is a graduate of Bethlehem High School and a former employe of the Lehigh Printing Company. His brother, Lieut. Joseph J. Green, is in the service four years, one year of which he has spent overseas. He is stationed in the Philippines at present.
