

Staffieri, Benedict F.
Edward M.
Richard S.

Promoted
JUL 2 1945

The promotion of Benedict F. Staffieri, son of Mr and Mrs. E. Staffieri, 1203 New Jersey Avenue, Hellertown, from Flight Officer to Second Lieutenant, was announced by his commanding officer in France. Now stationed in Germany with the 61st T. C. Squadron, Lieut. Staffiere participated in many aerial sorties over Germany, France, Frankfurt, Essen, and Cologne.

Before enlisting in the A. A. P., the young officer attended Lehigh University and Alabama University. He received his training at Miami Beach, Fla.; Hiram College, Hiram, O.; San Antonio, Texas; El Reno, Okla., and Coffeyville, Kansas. He graduated as a Flight Officer at Selman Field, La., and was given several days furlough, after which he was sent overseas to England.

Lt. Staffieri has two brothers in the service. Pfc. Edward M., in Germany, with the Combat Engineers, and Richard, S 2/C, stationed in the Pacific.
