

Boogar, Maurice

TENDERED FAREWELL PARTY.

8-29-1942
Mrs. Maurice Boogar, 2227 Kemmerer Street, who with Billy, her son, will leave shortly to join Captain Boogar, her husband, former Pennsylvania Highways Department employe, in Durham, N. C., with the U. S. Army, was given a farewell bridge party Friday evening by Mrs. Edgar Tracy in the latter's home Friday evening.

Refreshments were served and small gifts were presented to Mrs. Boogar by each of her friends attending the gathering.

Besides Mrs. Boogar and Mrs. Tracy, those attending the party were Mrs. E. W. Brandt, Miss Gertrude Hildenberger, Mrs. James Anderson, Miss Anita McGovern, Mrs. Nils Rorhus and Mrs. M. F. Weimer.
