

Yasko, George B.

New Corporal

George B. Yasko, son of Mrs. Marion Yasko, 608 Pierce Street, has been promoted to Corporal, his mother has been advised. He has completed a year's service with the Army Air Corps, having been inducted July 28, 1942.

He received his basic training at St. Petersburg, Florida, and completed a Fighter Aircraft Armorers course of instruction at the Air Forces Technical School, Buckley Field, Colorado, having graduated from the Armament School in November 1942, at which time he also received his Wings. Since November 1942 he has been stationed at the Harlingen Army Gunnery School. He is expected home on furlough this month.

Aug. 9, 1943