Traditions to get independent decider

BY BERNIE O'HARE Special to the Bethlehem Press

ethlehem Township Solicitor Jim Broughal has suggested that an independent hearing officer, and not the Board of Commissioners, should decide whether to grant tentative plan approval of a controversial retirement community proposed next to environmentally sensitive wetlands known as Green Pond Marsh. His recommendation is prompted by allegations that Commissioner Pat Breslin is biased in favor of the plan.

Broughal was supposed to decide that motion on March 1, when the hearing was scheduled to resume. But that never happened. Broughal told commissioners that his decision, what-ever it is, would be the basis of an appeal. He also predicted that other disqualification motions would soon follow, aimed at others.

of the deciders. It's based on statements Breslin made recommended by the Planning Commission.

he three girls in the statue at the entrance to the Bethlehem Public Library have been holding hands and preparing to dance - maybe ring-around-the-rosy - since the statue was given to the city by its generous benefactors, Linny and Beall Fowler, in 2002. A recent visitor to the library was surprised to see that the girls now offer a seasonal gift of their own to other children; warm caps and scarves for kids who need them. "Please take to keep warm," a sign says. A library staff member at the main desk said caps and scarves have been appearing on the dancing girls for several years. They first appear when the weather turns cold in October, and as they are removed by needy residents they are automatically replaced until spring. Asked who provides these gifts, the staff person smiled and confessed she doesn't know. She has never seen those responsible. Perhaps it is a neighbor who knits, she suggested. "The clothing is just there," she added. A reference librarian - a professional question-answerer - didn't know how this happens, either. "It's just a mystery," he said, smiling. "A very nice mystery."

Will new Brooman sweep clean?

Special to the Bethlehem Press

Controversial plans for a senior retirement community at Green Pond will be decided by an independent hearing officer from outside the Lehigh Valley. Attorney David Brooman, from Norristown, was the unanimous choice of Bethlehem Township's board of commissioners at its March 6 meeting. He has three decades of experience in municipal law, land use planning and environmental law.

Retirement community developer Traditions of America (TOA) is seeking tentative plan approval for a 229home development in an Audubon-designated Important Bird Area at Green Pond. Attorneys Charles and Thomas Elliott, representing an environmental group known as "Save Green Pond," filed a motion seeking Pat Breslin's ouster as one of the deciders on the basis of statements he has made calling the project a 'done deal.'

Two days later, on March 8, commissioners voted to continue the TOA decision until March 15, when Brooman will take over. Tom Elliott attempted to interpose a formal objection, but Broughal refused to receive it or let Elliott speak.

When the hearing resumes March 15, Brooman will preside.

What Must I Do?

To the question, "What must I do to be saved?" some have answered, "Nothing, Christ has done it all for you." Such an answe addresses only part of the whole truth! When the jailer asked this question in Acts 16:30, Paul and Silas answered, "Believe on the

In Acts 2:37, we find the question, "Men and brethren, What shall we do?" Did the Apostles answer, "Nothing?" No, Peter's reply was, "Repent." Jesus Christ declared, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6). He is the Way to the Father, and there is no other way. I have nothing to do in the providing of the way, but I have something definite to do to avail myself of it! All who wish to be saved must come to Jesus. He said, "Come unto me...and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). Of some He said, "Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life" (John 5:40). To come to Him as Savior, to submit to Him as Lord, are definite acts of the will!

The Bible clearly states what you must do to be saved! "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved" (Romans 10:9). Jesus is "the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him" (Hebrews 5:9).
My question to you is: What have you done to be saved? The work of Jesus Christ on the cross for your salvation was perfect and complete--nothing more can be added! But, what have you done about it? Do nothing and you will be lost for eternity! Jesus stands at the door of your heart knocking--you must open it to be saved (Revelation 3:20). What will you do to be saved?

TEENS OF THE YEAR

Jaiden Coyne is a senior at Freedom HS and is the captain of both the soccer and the basketball teams, and the president of BASD Mini-THON. She is also a member of the National Honor Society, Student Council and the Student Athletic Council. She has volunteered with the Special Olympics, Elves of Bethlehem, youth basketball and soccer. Jaiden is a counselor at Camp Smile, a camp for children with cancer, and has helped the BASD Mini-THON raise nearly $300,000 toward fighting pediatric cancer. After high school she plans on attending college to become a pediatric oncology nurse.

Lauren Hiller is a senior at Freedom HS, where she is the president of the Art Club and a member of the National Honor Society. She has recently been selected to have two pieces exhibited in the Rotunda Gallery Art Show and is working on a piece to be displayed in the superintendent's office. Her passion for helping others has led her to complete over 250 community service hours at local organizations including St. Luke's, New Bethany Ministries and ArtsQuest. Lauren plans to attend Edinboro University. After college she hopes to use her artistic abilities to pursue a career in video game design, animation or interactive media design.

JiaMei Li is a senior at Liberty HS and ranks seventh in her class. Throughout her high school career, JiaMei has taken numerous honors and AP courses in disciplines such as math, science and business. She enjoys challenging herself and is currently dual-enrolled in a calculus course. In addition to her academic achievements, JiaMei works at her family's restaurant and Wegmans, and has completed over 250 community service hours at the Miller Keystone Blood Center and Trinity Soup Kitchen. She is also a member of Future Business Leaders of America. After graduation, JiaMei will attend Lehigh University for accounting and finance.

Jocelyn Snyder is a senior at Liberty HS whose passion for music and mathematics has led her to become the president of the band and treasurer of the orchestra. She also helped start the Social Justice Club at Liberty and is a member of National Honor Society, the Mock Trial Team and the Math Team. Outside school, Jocelyn has volunteered at vacation bible school, blood drives, BASD Mini-THON, Young People's Philharmonic Orchestra, and Donegan Elementary summer school. She works at Dutch Springs Agua Park as a watercraft attendant and manager. After college, Jocelyn wants to pursue a career in civil engineering in the United States Navy.

Memory Café Hosted by Arden Courts

Tuesday March 21, 2017

All events will begin at 10:00 am

Bethlehem Senior Center 720 Old York Road Bethlehem, PA 18018 (enter through the Senior Center doors)

Join us each month for coffee and conversation specifically for people with dementia and their caregivers.

What is Memory Café?

Originally started in England, this informal setting provides the caregiver a forum for discussion, reducing the isolation often felt by people with dementia, their caregivers and families. Discussions can range from practical tips for coping with dementia, avoiding caregiver burnout or information about community resources. There is no cost or obligation, and many attendees develop friendships that result in support even outside the Memory Café setting.

Questions? Please call us at: (484) 373-5170

Lehigh County: Eckhart seeks county executive seat Lehigh County Controller Glenn Eckhart has announced his intent to seek the Republican nomination for Lehigh County

Eckhart has been a school board member, a township commissioner, a county commissioner and is currently the Lehigh County

Eckhart said the county executive and the commissioners need to work well together.

"Being county executive, you share the role in the leadership of county government with the judges, the district attorney, the sheriff, the clerk of judicial records and the coroner. They are all independent elected officials who are hired by the taxpayers to run their department. They give feedback to the county executive on how they want to run their department through the budget process. I have already built a good relationship with most of those folks. I will continue to try and build relationships." Regarding the commissioners, Eckart said he served as one for six years. If elected, he wants to have individual meetings with all nine commissioners face to face every two weeks to discuss legislation, issues and more.

"Government has to work for the people, not against the people," Eckhart said.

"I'm looking forward to being the Republican nominee on May 16 and then in November, I will be elected the next county executive. Thank you all for your support."

Four Tax Tips on Unemployment Benefits

Taxpayers who received unemployment benefits need to remember that it may be taxable. Here are five key facts about unemployment: 1.Unemployment is Taxable. Include all unemployment compensation as income for the year. Taxpayers should receive a Form 1099-G, Certain Government Payments, by Jan. 31. This form shows the amount received and the amount of any federal income tax withheld.

2. There are Different Types. Unemployment compensation includes amounts paid under federal law or state law as well as railroad, trade readjustment and airline deregulation laws. Even some forms of disability payments can count. For more information, see IRS Publication 525.

3.Union Benefits May be Taxable. Benefits received from regular union dues as income might be taxable. Other rules may apply if a taxpayer contributed to a special union fund and those contributions to the fund are not deductible. In this case, report only income exceeding the amount of contributions made.

4.Tax May be Withheld. Those who receive unemployment can choose to have federal income tax withheld by using Form W-4V, Voluntary Withholding Request. Those choosing not to have tax withheld may need to make estimated tax payments during the year.

POST-WINTER GARDEN PREP

Lawns and gardens can bear the brunt of winter weather and are often in need of tender loving care by the time spring arrives.

Preparing a garden for spring and summer involves assessing any damage that harsh weather might have caused. As temperatures climb, gardeners can heed the following post-winter garden preparation tips in an effort to ensure some successful gardening in the months ahead.

· Assess the damage. Even if winter was mild, gardens might still have suffered some damage. Inspect garden beds and any fencing or barriers designed to keep wildlife from getting into the garden. Before planting anew, fix any damage that Mother Nature or local wildlife might have caused over the past several months.

· Clear debris. Garden beds and surrounding landscapes that survived winter without being damaged might still be littered with debris. Remove fallen leaves, branches and even litter that blew about on windy winter days before planting season. Make sure to discard any debris effectively so it does not find its way back into the · Turn the greenhouse into a clean house. Spring cleaning is not just for the interior of a home. Cleaning a greenhouse in advance of spring can help gardeners evict any overwintering pests that can threaten plant life once spring gardening season arrives. A thorough cleaning, which should include cleaning the inside of greenhouse glass and washing flower pots and plant trays, also can prevent plant diseases from surviving into spring.

Check for pests. Speak with a local gardening professional to determine if there are any local pests to look out for and how to recognize and remove these pets from gardens. Pests may hibernate in the soil over the winter, and such unwelcome visitors can make it difficult for gardens to thrive come spring and summer.

Assess plant location. If plants, flowers or gardens have struggled in recent years or never grew especially vibrant, then gardeners may want to assess the location of their plant life before spring gardening season begins. Some plants may not be getting enough sunlight in certain locations on a property, while others might be overexposed to the sun during spring and summer. Moving plants that are not thriving prior to the start of spring gardening season may be just what gardens need to flourish in the coming weeks.

Spring gardening season is right around the corner, so now is an ideal time to prepare gardens for the warmer seasons ahead.

Traditions of Hanover Independent Living aims to keep its senior residents healthy, happy, and engaged in the greater community, and on Feb. 24 a group of residents took a little field trip to My Sister's Closet to do some volunteering. Seven residents were taken to volunteer at the two My Sister's Closet locations, where they had a variety of duties for the day. Jennifer Murphy, marketing director, took residents Nancy Gutek, Beverly Clark, Jill Ward, and Pauline Beck to My Sister's Closet in Easton, where they assisted with sorting and steaming clothes and marking the discounted clothing with pink dots for the weekend sale. Leanne Black, activities assistant, went to the Bethlehem location with residents Ruthie Cautero, Janet Day and Milly Mead, and they helped clean up the shop. "When we arrived, Chris, the manager of the Easton location, explained that she just received a large carload donation of clothes that needed to be sorted, steamed and priced to sell," said Murphy. "All of us were eager to get started and within an hour and a half, we finished our tasks. We enjoyed the time volunteering to help this organization that supports Truth for Women, 'Giving back' to our local community is something that we, as an active, vibrant, independent living senior community, enjoy doing and we made it our theme for 2017."

My Sister's Closet, a women's resale boutique, is a funding source for Truth for Women, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation. Truth for Women aims to provide restorative care for sexually exploited women and increase awareness so there can ultimately be a community free of sex trafficking (www. shopmysisterscloset.com).

Board considers selling empty property BY LIZ KEMMERER Special to the Bethlehem Press

The directors are exploring possibilities for the two vacant land parcels located at the corner of Freemansburg Avenue and Farmersville Road. The district has owned the 15.45 acre lot since 1979 and has leased it as farmland for the past several years.

The ongoing growth in residential and commercial real estate over the last few years along the Freemansburg Avenue corridor has triggered the need to evaluate the property as an educational asset, explained BASD chief facilities and operations officer Mark Stein at the facilities committee meeting Mar. 5.

In an analysis of the property that he com-piled, Stein said the property is an ideal size for an elementary school if the district should experience an unforeseen spike in enrollment. Its proximity to residential and commercial areas and local highways, however, make it a great prospect for a commercial developer as well.

"Owning a prime piece of property for either long term insur-ance against increasing enrollments, or getting in on the ground floor of growing commercial development in the Freemansburg Avenue corridor is a great problem to have," Stein said.

The property is located in the Farmersville ES sending area and sits very close to the Miller Heights ES border. Students from these schools will attend East Hills MS and Freedom HS. In his report, Stein included an evaluation of the current enrollment capacities and enrollment trends that these four schools have seen over the past 20 years to help determine if the need for building another school

Trojans rally, top BC boys

BY KATIE MCDONALD kmcdonald@tnonline.com

All Bethlehem Catholic boys' basketball Ray Barbosa could do after the Hawks' last minute 58-56 loss to Greater Nanticoke in the first round of the PIAA state playoffs last Saturday afternoon was shake his head.

"They scored 30 points in the fourth quarter. Our defense has to be better than that," Barbosa said. "We can't give up 30 points in one quarter. We can't do that.'

A lot happened in the last minute, but by then, the Trojans were well on their way to scoring those 30 points that Barbosa could barely wrap his head around.

With Becahi leading 51-45, Cody Piestrak hit a three pointer for Greater Nanticoke, and Patrick Caesar scored two more points for the Trojans, pulling them to within one point of the Hawks.

Becahi then turned over the ball on a hard pass that was deflected and went out of bounds, and Piestrak was fouled sank two free throws to take the lead from the Hawks.

Wiaterows-Rich ki also sank two free throws for the Trojans, and with 12 seconds remaining, Nate Kreitzer good," Barbosa said. had a steal, was fouled, and made two free throws of his own.

"I saw some flashes," laughed Kreitzer, regarding the pressure of making the foul shots. "We just kept pushing, and this is amazing because we knew if we could stick together, we could win, and because this is the first time we made states since 2003."

A last second three pointer by Becahi's William Melson left the Hawks three points short of a state playoff victory.

'Down the stretch, we did not play well at all," Barbosa said. "We had defensive breakdowns."

The Hawks led 40-28 heading into the fourth quarter, but Greater Nanticoke poured on the threes by Kreitzer, Piestrak, and Luke Butczynski to chip away at Becahi's lead fast.

Both teams were fairly even in the first quarter until Ryan Young, Darreon Robinson, Jordan Odle, and Justin Paz combined for eight straight points for the Hawks in the second. Becahi proceeded to hold the Trojans to six points in the third quarter, a combination of shots not falling for Greater Nanticoke and a well-timed forced turnover created by Melson.

KEMPTON

Fair set for June 15-17

The Kempton Fair the one you remember from years ago, starting in 1957 - is alive and well and living in beautiful Kempton, Berks County.

Sponsored by the Kempton Community Center, 83 Community Center Drive, Kempton, the fair is set for June 15-17.

refurbished The event will bring new energy and new direction, but with more of the old-time feel of yesteryear.

The "Kempton Country Fair" of recent years, an organization separate from KCC, has changed its name and location.

For this event, they are bringing back all the great stuff fair-goers love, such as three evenings of tractor and truck power pulls and drags; popular musical talents Crazy Hearts, Scott Marshall & Marshall's Highway, and the Hannah Violet

There will also be livestock exhibitions; baking contests; fireinteractive works; attractions for the youngsters, such as Chil-Middle-earth dren's Theater; food and much more.

And perhaps you will want to take part in the Kempton's Got Talent competition on Thursday evening.

There is a 13-19 age group and a 20-andabove age group.

Auditions are on June 3 at KCC.

On Friday evening, get yourself up for the Willie Nelson Look-Alike Contest.

There will be prizes for age groups and eras.

Willie Nelson appeared at the Kempton Fair on June 17, 1967.

All this for small price per person on Thursday and Friday evenings (ages 10 and under are free) and a carload (one person per seatbelt) on Saturday.

Would you like to be a sponsor or a vendor or maybe a volunteer to help the Kempton Fair Committee?

Call 610-756-6444 and leave a message or email info@kemptonfair.org.

More information about activities and scheduled events can be found at www.kemptonfair.org or look for "Kempton Fair" on Facebook.

You may not like green eggs and ham, but many people loved ArtsQuest's free storytime event in honor of Dr. Seuss' birthday March 2 at the Banana Factory Arts Center, 25 W. Third St., Bethlehem.

ArtsQuest brought some of Suess' best-loved books to life through readings by ArtsQuest staff on Read Across America Day in the Crayola Gallery. Children enjoyed the clever characters and witty wordplay from classics like "Green Eggs and Ham," "The Lorax," "One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish"

After storytime, children were invited to stay for a craft inspired by the Seuss classic "Oh, the Places You'll Go!" Kids made a 3-D paper hot air balloon and wrote on the basket the places they would like to visit and what they'd like to be when they grow up. This Suess-abration was geared toward families with children 6 and under, but guests of all ages were welcome to celebrate the annual Read Across America

"Memories of Steel: Women of Bethlehem Steel" featured three women who shared memories of their involvement with "The Steel" during its heyday and decline in the Lehigh Valley. A collaborative effort of the Steelworkers' Archives and Lehigh University, the event was held March 7 at the Bethlehem Area Public Library on Church Street.

Steelworkers' chives board member Jill Schennum, moderated the event. Former steelworkers Jeanne "Honi" Brugger and Donna Kucsan described their groundbreaking careers in a male-dominated work environment. The daughter of a neighborhood grocer, Tine Richie, shared her memories of working at her father's store when it was patronized by steelworkers and their families.

Several generations of Jeanne "Honi" Brugger's family, starting with her great-grandfather, worked for Bethlehem Steel. She started her career at "The Steel" in 1964 in the accounts payable office. In 1973 Brugger was given the opportunity to work in the plants, since management wanted to put a woman out there. She said she was told, "It's all numbers. You're going to be setting rates." MiniTHON, spring sports, colleges

The Bethlehem Area School District (BASD) will be hosting its fifth annual MiniTHON, modeled after Pennsylvania State University's event held to raise money for the fight against pediatric cancer

Liberty and Freedom, typically rival schools, come together as one in this unique 12-hour dance marathon. MiniTHON will be held at Liberty HS March 25 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

As of Monday, March 6, the spring sports season has started at Freedom, marking the beginning of practice for the boys and girls lacrosse, boys tennis, baseball, softball, track and field, and boys volleyball. The end of the winter sports season, coupled with the soon-approaching Advanced Placement exams, is sure to be a source of stress for students. However, it is bittersweet for this year's seniors; this marks their last year of standardized testing and high school sports teams. The Class of 2017 is nearing graduation and the classic "senioritis" - a supposed affliction of high school seniors, characterized by a lack of motivation - is in full swing!

Also pertaining to this year's seniors are the incoming college acceptances (and rejections). The Class of 2017 has students committed to Harvard, Cornell and University of Pennsylvania: Evan Callahan, Judson Freidl and Sahitya Mandalapu, respectively. Other schools are set to release admissions decisions in early April, and the level of anticipation felt by those who applied is 'Tis the season of promposals! Freedom switched things up this year, changing the venue of prom from DeSales University, the location used for several years, to Bethlehem Steelstacks ArtsQuest Center. The decision seems to have been made in favor of a closer locale and a more attractive view. The dance is scheduled for Friday, May 5.

This year, Freedom's award-winning theater company will be performing the well-known show, "Peter Pan." The cast includes Kelly Donah (senior) as Peter Pan, Grace Taylor (freshman) as Wendy, Michael Harding (senior) as Captain Hook, and Olivia D'Aprile and Brendan Maciel (seniors) who are double-cast as Tiger Lily. The show runs April 5-9. Tickets sell fast!

Hop to it: "A Year With Frog And Toad," at 2 p.m. March 18, Miller Symphony Hall, Allentown, is based on the Caldecott and Newbery awards-winning children's books written and illustrated by Arnold Lobel, and has a jazzy, upbeat score by Robert (music) and Willie Reale (book and lyrics). Lobel's daughter, Adrianne, commissioned the musical based on her father's characters. The five-actor musical, above, is recommended for children ages 3-10. The musical follows the woodland adventures of two amphibious friends, a worrywart toad and a perky frog, who meet new friends like Man Bird and Lady Bird; Father, Mother and Young Frog; Turtle, and Squirrel over the course of four seasons. The show opened on Broadway in 2003 and was nominated for three Tony Awards (musical, book, score). Tickets: Miller Symphony Hall Box Office, 23 N. Expanding jazz: Expansions: The Dave Liebman Group, performs at 7:30 p.m. March 17 in the "Jazz Upstairs Series" in the Rodale Room, Miller Symphony Hall, Allentown. It's a kick-off performance to herald the Berks Jazz Fest. The Expansions' concert features music written and played by John Coltrane celebrating the 90th year of his birth and 50th year since his death. The material covers three periods of Coltrane's extraordinary and short (12-year) career, beginning as a sideman in the Miles Davis Group, through the repertoire of the Classic Quartet (Tyner, Jones and Garrison) and concluding with pieces from the "free-jazz" period. For Liebman, above right, it was seeing Coltrane live on many occasions in New York City that inspired him to pursue this music. Tickets: Miller Symphony Hall Box Office, 23 N. Preparing the soil is the most important step in flower or vegetable gardening. Test your soil this spring and use the test results and recommendations as a guide.

The soil in gardens changes, although it may look the same year after year. Growing and harvesting crops, leaching and erosion affect the availability of soil nutrients. A soil test is a valuable tool that guides gardeners.

A soil test measures nutrient amounts and pH, or level of acidity. Soil pH is measured on a scale of 0 to 14, with 0 being the most acid, 14 the most alkaline ing chemicals can harm and can suffer from iron and 7 neutral.

We have a really great writers' guild in our area that includes beginners as WARMEST well as seasoned writers.

In the 10 years that I've belonged, it's been fun to watch "newbies" become polished, published writers. The transformation is amazing.

One man said he came to his first meeting at the insistence of his wife because she said he had to find an interest that would lift him out of his depression.

When Don worked up his courage to read some of his work, he was surprised at the good reception it got.

When we get together each month, there is sharing time when members read a little of what they wrote and tell about any publishing success they've had.

This month, the program chairman had an unique idea. "Instead of sharing what you write, tell us WHY you write," she suggested.

For me, that was easy to answer. I write for the same reason that I breathe: It is life sustaining in so many ways.

Writing can energize me so much so that sometimes when I finish writing a story I am on such a high that I dance around my house in glee.

When I finished writing my column last week, I was singing and dancing my way into the kitchen, making my husband comment on my good mood. Writing can do that for

But it would always seem so miraculous when I did start to write, and my mind cleared to the point where it felt like I had a tranquilizer.

For me, the act of writing is a tranquilizer.

When I am struggling with an issue, writing sometimes helps me make sense of the world.

Often, I don't even know I have a thought until I type it on my computer. When that happens, it's as if it was written by a hidden hand.

When that clarity comes through the act of writing, what I write sometimes helps others understand me. Mostly though, writing helps me understand myself.

ZONING HEARING BOARD OF BETHLEHEM TOWNSHIP, NORTHAMPTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA MARCH 29, 2017 PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE FOLLOWING APPELLANT HAS FILED AN APPEAL FOR A PUBLIC HEARING BEFORE THE ZONING HEARING BOARD OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BETHLEHEM, A HEARING TO BE HELD AT 6:30 PM ON WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2017 AT THE TOWNSHIP MUNICIPAL BUILDING, 4225 EASTON AVENUE, BETHLE-HEM, PA 18020. THE MEETING, AMONG OTHER ISSUES, CON-CERNS THE FOLLOWING ZONING APPEALS:

Appeal # 04-2017 Brodhead Holdings, L.P., Owner-Applicant of three (3) unimproved parcels of real estate located within Bethlehem Township, seeks as many as four (4) alternate remedies from the Bethlehem Township Zoning Hearing Board:

1. A preliminary zoning determination that the three (3) parcels may be "consolidated" as "adjacent" lots, and that once consolidation occurs, that a warehouse may be constructed that complies with lot density requirements as mandated by Section 275-107G of the Bethlehem Township Zoning Ordinance.

The three (3) parcels maintain Northampton County Lot Identification Numbers as follows: M7 Block 4 Lot 2 which parcel exists in the "Light Industrial" Zoning District; M7 Block 4 Lot 2A which parcel exists in the "Light Industrial" Zoning District; and M7 Block 4 Lot 4C which parcel exists in the "Conservation and Recreational" Zoning District.

2. Alternatively the Applicant seeks a variance to allow the three (3) parcels to be developed as a single consolidated tract so that possible compliance with the density requirements of Section 275-107G might be achieved. The Applicant has failed to state what specific arithmetic or dimensional deviations from the Zoning Code will be sought.

3. Alternatively the Applicant seeks a variance from the density requirements of Section 275-107G to permit construction of a warehouse upon the two parcels existing to the west of an existing railroad line i.e. M7 Block 4 lot 2 and 2A. However, the Applicant has again failed to state what specific arithmetic or dimensional deviations from the Zoning Code will be

4. The Applicant seeks to include parcel M7 Block 4 Lot 4C in its prayer for consolidation. This remedy will require a use variance, since the use of a warehouse within the Conservation and Recreation Zoning District is pre-cluded by Section 275-117 of the Zoning Code which delineates permittedby-right uses. A warehouse is not permitted by right.

5. The three parcels are located immediately north of Pennsylvania Route 22 at its intersection with Route 191 (Nazareth Pike) and exist in the northwest quadrant of this intersection. The parcels encompass approximately
