

Bednarchik, Joseph
Stanley

Made Sergeant

JUL 10 1944

Joseph Bednarchik, Bethlehem R. D. 2, now wears the chevrons of a sergeant. He was inducted into the armed forces on January 20, 1943, and after completing a course of study at an anti-aircraft school at Camp Edwards, Mass., he was transferred to Keesler Field, Miss., recently, graduating in an airplane mechanic's school. Before his induction he was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company. A brother, Stanley, in service for the past two weeks, is receiving his preliminary training at Camp Blanding, Fla.
