Dorothy Hartman Becomes Bride Of Army Man

APR 26 1944

Old Moravian Chapel, Heckewelder Place, was the scene of the wedding yesterday of Miss Dorothy Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Hartman, of Easton, and Sgt. Robert D. Kieffer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kieffer, 534 Washington Avenue, Bethlehem. The Rev. Byron K. Horne, pastor of the Central Moravian Church, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Harry Schaeffer presided at the organ console.

The bride was attired in an aqua dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Ray Gold, the matron of honor, wore a gray dress, with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Ray Gold attended the bridegroom as best man. Floyd A. Ungerer and Platoon Sgt. Richard Brader, both of Bethlehem, served as ushers.

A wedding reception for the wedding party was held at the Gold residence, 1508 West Union Street. After a wedding trip to the Poconos the couple will return to Bethlehem and Mrs. Kieffer will stay here for the duration and Sgt. Kieffer will return to his base at Las Vegas, Nevada.

The bride was graduated from Easton High School and is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom was graduated from Liberty High School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the service.
