

Clewell, Edgar F.

GIVEN PROMOTION.

SEP 23 1942

Word was received here today that Col. Edgar L. Clewell, commanding officer of the Signal Corps Replacement Training Center at Fort Monmouth, has been elevated to the rank of brigadier general. He was sworn in after his nomination was confirmed by the Senate.

A graduate of Moravian College, and Columbia University, General Clewell will remain in command of the training center. He formerly was executive officer of Fort Monmouth.
