

Hall, Arthur A.

Home For Holidays,
Absent Four Years 30 1943

Arthur A. Hall, chief petty radio officer, stationed in Norfolk, Va., spent his first Christmas at home in four years. He is the son of Mrs. Mary Hall, Wydnor, Bethlehem R. D. 3. Hall enlisted in the Navy eight years ago and saw action at Pearl Harbor in December 1941 and was in the battle of Marshall Island. He was home this past March on a thirty-day sick leave.

His father, the late Arthur A. Hall, was wounded in action in World War I, July 27, 1918, and died of his wounds July 30, 1918. His body was removed from the cemetery in France in 1925 and brought to this country and is now buried in Brooklyn.
