

Williams, David L.

LT. DAVID WILLIAMS

Word was received late last night from the Red Cross by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Williams, North Third Street, Bangor, informing them that their son, Lt. David L. Williams, Army Air Force officer who was a prisoner of the German government since August, 1943, had been liberated. No further details were given.

May 18, 1945