

Freeman, Edward William

Hellertown Twins Advanced

JAN 10 1945

EDWARD FREEMAN

WILLIAM FREEMAN

Edward and William Freeman, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Freeman, 137 Northampton Street, Hellertown, who have been serving together since their enlistment in June of 1943, have just been promoted from Seaman s-c to radio operators 3-c. They are stationed somewhere in Australia, presumably in Sydney, serving with Radio Unit 136 with their address as care of PM., San Francisco. Following their enlistment they were sent to Sampson, N. Y., and thence to Miami University, Oxford, O. Later they were stationed for a time in Washington, D. C., and then went to the West Coast for sea duty. At present they are on land duty.

January 10, 1945