DR. GEORGE S. BOYER

He is serving as first flight-surgeon somewhere in the Middle East.

Dr. Boyer was graduated from the Allentown High School in 1933; from Muhlenberg College, pre-medical, 1937, and from the medical department of Temple University, 1941. He took his internship at the Allentown General Hospital, 1941-42.

While at Muhlenberg College he was a member of the Chapel Choir. He was also a member of the Allentown High School and Muhlenberg College bands during his school days.

He entered the U. S. service August 1, 1942, at the Carlisle Barracks. He graduated there and was transferred to Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas; thence to Bowman Field, Louisville, Ky., and Nashville, Tenn., in preparation for flight-surgeon. His residence is with his mother and aunt, Miss Edna Belzner, 318 West Packer Avenue.
