

Stocker, Robert

Three E. T. O. Weary G.I's

For the first time since the war, these three childhood friends met in Bethlehem while on furlough from the European Theatre. They are, (left to right) Pfc. Ned W. Hoffman, Cpl. Norman T. Clewell, and Pfc. Robert R. Stocker.

Pfc. Ned Hoffman of Main and Market Streets, this city, served with the U. S. Engineers in France and Luxemburg. At the conclusion of his furlough, he will report back to Camp Pickett, Va., where he will convalesce.

Cpl. Norman Clewell, 614 North Main Street, is serving with the Medical Division. He was assigned to a Hospital Ship transporting wounded men from Europe to the United States.

Pfc. Robert Stocker, 614 North Main, served with the 15th Air Force in Italy. At the completion of his furlough, he will return to Camp McCook, Nebraska, for reassignment.
