

Rogers, Roy E.

STUDYING AT DREXEL

PHILADELPHIA, (Special to The Globe-Times)—Pvt. Roy E. Rogers, of 661 Main Street, Hellertown, and Private George H. Barndt, Bethlehem, are among the 400 student trainees, enlisted men of the army, who began a 59 hour a week schedule at Drexel Institute of Technology, Philadelphia, last week in the study of engineering under the army specialized training program, according to an announcement by Dr. George P. Rea, president of the college. Pvts. Rogers and Barndt may be addressed in care of the 3318th Service Unit, A. S. T. P., Drexel Institute of Technology, Philadelphia 4, Pennsylvania.

July 21, 1943