

Wardenski, Helen

Bethlehem Woman
Re-Enlists In WAC
FEB 1 1944

Mrs. Helen Wardenski, 650 Williams Street, has re-enlisted in the Women's Army Corps at the Allentown Recruiting Station. Mrs. Wardenski was in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps from Oct. 15, 1942 to Aug. 18, 1943, and when the Auxiliary became a part of the regular Army, Mrs. Wardenski did not re-enlist immediately.

She was last stationed at the Post Headquarters Company, Victorville, Cal. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Posh, 650 Williams Street, and her husband is Cpl. Sigmund Wardenski. He is stationed in England.

Mrs. Wardenski attended Washington School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. She has been assigned to the Army Air Force and recommended as a driver of light automotive equipment. Awaiting her call to active duty, she was sworn in Jan. 28 by Lieut. Frances Hope Johnson, officer in charge of the Army Recruiting Office.
