MARIANO D'AMBROSIO

E. PETER D'AMBROSIO

Mariano and E. Peter D'Ambrosio, sailor sons of Mr. and Mrs. Peter D'Ambrosio, 638 Hayes Street, are in the midst of things in "certain" theaters of war, and each has recently been advanced in rank. The former is "somewhere overseas"; the latter "somewhere on the high sea." Mariano has been advanced to the rank of Aviation Machinist's Mate, Second Class; his brother to Fireman First Class. Both are graduates of Bethlehem Technical High School. Mariano played tackle on the high school varsity eleven. He enlisted in September, 1941, and before joining the combat forces in one of the theaters of war, received training at a base in Rhode Island, Great Lakes Naval Training Station, and at Alameda, Calif. Peter received his boot training at Sampson, N. Y., and was later transferred to Richmond, Va., thence to California. He enlisted in January, 1943. Both brothers were employes of the Bethlehem Steel Company before joining the combat forces.
