

Kervin, Frederick J.

Seidersville Youth Dies In Battle

Pfc. Frederick J. Kervin, nineteen year old son of Mrs. Alice Kervin, of Seidersville, was killed in action "somewhere in France", on June 14, according to information embodied in a telegram from the War Department, received this morning by his mother.

His father was killed some time ago in an accident on Wyandotte Street.

He was inducted into the armed

PFC. FRED J. KERVIN
... killed in action

forces on February 25, 1943, and following a four months training period at Camp Wheeler, Ga., he was sent to Africa, participating in engagements in that theatre of war, Tunisia, Casablanca and Sicily. From the latter place he was sent to England and took part in the invasion of France. He has been overseas since July 1943. He never had a furlough. Before being inducted into the armed forces, he was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Besides his mother he is survived by two brothers, Charles and Robert, both at home. He was a member of the Lutheran wing of Jerusalem Church.

Jul. 7, 1944