

Minnich Jr., Albert

Mrs. Albert Minnich, Jr., received word that her husband, Pvt. Albert Minnich Jr., has been advanced to the rank of Sergeant at his station in South Carolina.

Inducted while an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company, he received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla. He was later assigned to the Engineers Light Equipment Company at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., and after completing that course of training, was sent to his present station.

His wife, the former Mildred Walters, is with him in South Carolina. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Minnich Sr., reside at 1413 Center Street.
