

Killgallon, Cleatus

Sergeant

Sergeant Cleatus Killgallon, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Killgallon and brother of Mrs. Roland G. Johns, 518 Pawnee Street, was recently awarded sergeant's stripes while serving in New Guinea.

Sgt. Killgallon was inducted July 2, 1942, and trained at Fort Eustis, Va., an anti-aircraft post, for six weeks prior to going to Fort McDowell, Calif. He was sent to Australia in January, 1943, and remained there until August, 1944. Prior to his induction, Sgt. Killgallon was employed by the Sure Fit Products Company. His family expects to see him soon.

September 30, 1945