

Lamborn, Thomas H.

His Fifth Promotion

Sgt. Thomas H. Lamborn 42
son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamborn, 719 Sixth Avenue, this city, who recently received his fifth promotion of his two and one-half year career in the United States Army. Lamborn, who is 21, has been advanced to the rank of technical sergeant. He is stationed in Massachusetts with an Aircraft Warning Unit. A graduate of Bethlehem High School and a former member of the school band, Sgt. Lamborn enlisted for service, studied to be a radio technician at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., and, upon graduation participated in maneuvers and other activities in that capacity. He recently was transferred to his present duties.
—Rembrandt studio

October 30, 1942