Brothers Meet At Front

Corporal Technician John W. Tullock and Staff Sergeant Alfred E. Tullock both sons of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Tullock, 247 Third Street, Cementon, met January 9, 1943, on battle fronts "somewhere in the Middle East."

They enlisted together during June, 1942, and were separated shortly after being stationed in Camp Lee, Va., for their basic training.

Corporal Tullock is married to the former Elizabeth Jardine, 12 Dewey Heights, Cementon. Married for six years, the couple are the parents of one son, John, Jr.

Sergeant Tullock was married in October, 1942, to the former Caroline Woderly, 1020 Oak Street, Stiles.
