

Cali, Ernest
John

Reunited in Florence, Italy

Corporal Ernest Cali and his brother, Technical Sergeant John Cali, met in Florence, Italy, after a separation of three years. Cpl. Ernest is with the Field Artillery and Sgt. John is a machine-gunner with the 15th Air Force. In addition to meeting each other, the brothers had the unexpected pleasure of meeting several uncles and cousins whom they had never seen and a friend, Private Carmen Palma, from West Bangor. Ernest entered the service in November, 1941, and trained at Fort Bragg, N. C., and Camp Blanding, Fla., before going overseas in July, 1942. John trained at Denver Colo., at Texas and California before going overseas in September, 1944. He is a graduate of Pen Argyl High School. Both attended Plainfield Township elementary schools and are former employes of the Imperial Shirt Factory.
