Open House Held
For Men On Leave

FEB 17 1945

Open house was held in honor of T/5 Robert O. Wagner, U. S. Army, who spent a 21-day furlough at home after being overseas 37 months seeing duty in Iceland, England and France. Also honored was Second Marine Officer Richard R. Wagner, who also enjoyed a 30-day furlough, after being in the South Pacific for 15 months. T/5 R. O. Wagner reported to Miami Beach for a rest and reassignment, and Second Marine Officer Richard R. Wagner reported to New York City for reassignment.
