

Kennedy, Neil J.

FOUR DISTRICT YOUTH
COMPLETE NAVY COURSE

OCT 3 1942
Three From City, One From Redington Ready for Advanced Courses.

Three young Bethlehem and a lad from Redington are reported by authorities of the Ninth Naval District, Great Lakes, Ill., with having completed their 16 weeks of preliminary training and are now ready to take such advanced course in specialized work as they may be fitted for.

From this city they are Neil J. Kennedy, machinist's mate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, 632 Broadway, Marino Rocco, gunner's mate, son of Mrs. Raffaella Guinilliani, 516 Second Avenue, and Henry S. Kudzik, gunner's mate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kudzik, 629 Frankford Street.

The Redington chap is Anthony Pasternak, son of Stanley Pasternak of the same place. He is now a machinist's mate.

As graduates of the Great Lakes Training School the men will be given an opportunity to take advanced courses, after which they will receive practical instruction under experienced petty officers and will then be eligible for examinations as petty officers themselves.

Oct. 3, 1942