Miss Fritchman Becomes Bride Of Lt. Andrews

JUN 30 1945
Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Fritchman of 1204 West Broad Street announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marguerite Ellen Fritchman, to Lieut. John Clenmore Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clenmore A. Andrews of 826 Beverly Avenue. The marriage took place June 21 in the chapel of the Finery General Hospital at Thomasville, Ga. with the chaplain, Major Andrew C. Aston, officiating. Major and Mrs. Douglas A. Roth, cousins of the bridegroom, attended the couple.

The bride is a graduate of Liberty High School and attended Bethlehem Business College. The bridegroom, a graduate of Blair Academy, attended Lehigh University before entering the service two years ago. He was commissioned in June, 1944 and left for overseas in October 1944.

Lieut. Andrews is receiving treatment at the hospital for a fractured ankle, received in combat at the Remagen bridgehead in Germany.
